Disclosure of personal data

We may disclose personal data provided by you to the following parties: third parties including Financial Institutions and other companies that require such information as is reasonably necessary to help us provide the Services to you including vendors, advertisers, consultants and advisers of AFIN and the APIX Platform and/or third parties that require such information in connection with a corporate merger, consolidation, the sale of substantially all assets or other fundamental corporate change of AFIN Ltd and/or the APIX Platform. Any personal data provided to us may be transferred to, stored by or disclosed to an overseas recipient. For example, we may use a server hosted overseas to store your personal data. We will take appropriate steps before your personal data is disclosed to an overseas recipient, to ensure that the overseas recipient provides a standard of protection to personal data so transferred that is comparable to the protection under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012. The parties with whom we share your personal information will be under reasonable confidentiality terms not to use your personally identifiable information for any purpose other than as specified in this Privacy Policy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we do not control and shall not be responsible or liable in any way for the collection, use and protection of your personal information by any third party.

Cookies

We, and the parties with whom we share your personal data, may use cookies, web beacons and other similar tracking technology in connection with your access to or use of the Services and third party services. Cookies are small data files stored on your computer or mobile device which may track information about you and your access to and use of the Services. It may be possible for you to disable some but not all cookies through your device or browser settings, but doing so may affect your ability to access or use the Services.

Storage of Personal Data

We will retain your personal data for as long as the purposes for which the data is collected continues or where otherwise necessary for legal purposes or for the purposes of our normal business operations, including but not limited to backup, archival or audit purposes. Such personal data may be accessible only by specific persons authorized by us. We will destroy or delete the data, or remove the means by which the data can be associated with you, when such purposes are no longer served by retention of the personal data or such personal data is no longer necessary for legal or business purposes.

Security

We maintain important safeguards to ensure the security and privacy of personal data collected by us including security measures to protect the loss, misuse or alternation of such information under our control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, while we strive to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security or privacy of such data or that such data will not be accessed, disclosed, altered or destroyed. It shall be your sole responsibility for safeguarding and maintaining the confidentiality of your account with us and checking your privacy settings regularly to ensure the privacy of your personal data.
